Tactical Weapons Control Instructor

This program is designed to prepare instructors to train their officers how to deal with Weapon Control in their duty assignment. Finally, there is a comprehensive weapon control system for dealing with all the weapon control situations that an officer is likely to face, i.e. firearms, edged weapons, clubs, and aerosol sprays. The program will develop a four step program for dealing with all the weapons that an officer may face whether they bring them to the scene, whether the subject brings them to the scene, or whether they are “weapons of opportunity” found at the scene. The program will build “awareness” of the threat, train officers how to “avoid” being assaulted or having their weapons assaulted, “retain” their weapons, if they are assaulted in a disarming attempt, and how to “disarm” a subject in a close quarters situation or if possible “defend” themselves with lethal force.

Topics that will be covered are:

- Tactical weapon control theory
- Disengagement tactics will be developed
- Single tactic weapon retention program
- How to avoid weapon control problems
- Close quarter firearms tactics
- Use of 21st Tactical AirSoft approved training weapons
- Use of Simunition® FX Marking Cartridges

Dates and Locations: Check our website for upcoming classes. Dates are added frequently

Active Countermeasures Tactical Instructor

This program is designed to prepare instructors to train tactical operators and/or patrol officers in how to utilize control tactics with their firearms drawn. The use of control tactics with a drawn handgun is usually overlooked in traditional defensive tactics training program. Originally designed for tactical teams for High Risk Entries, these tactics have found increased need by patrol officers. Even though burglary complaints, man-with-a-gun calls, or the response to an active shooter may result in an officer responding with his handguns drawn only to find out this has turned into a subject control situation. This program will cover the full range of instruction including lecture, demonstration, physical technique training, simulation training, and testing procedures. The emphasis of this program is to get an instructor up to speed to train their tactical operators and patrol officers.

Topics that will be covered are:

- Tactical weapon control theory
- Strategies for teaching psychomotor skills
- Drawn firearm subject control tactics
- Decentralization and stabilization tactics
- Training props and protective equipment
- Simulation Training Strategies
- Use of 21st Tactical AirSoft approved training weapons
- Use of Simunition® FX Marking Cartridges
- Use of RedMan® Protective Equipment

Duration: 5 Days

Tuition: $595.00

Ammunition: None

Equipment Required: Clothing and footwear for defensive tactics instruction, with whistle and lanyard. Duty belt with holster, training weapons, inert aerosols, body armor, impact weapon, protective equipment, groin protection and mouthpiece.

Simulation Instructor Development: Integrated Use of Force Instructor

This program is designed to prepare new instructors to train their personnel in the use of defensive tactics utilizing the simulation training format. Instruction will deal with incorporating the instructors existing techniques and tactics into tactical communication, subject control, aerosol sprays, impact weapons, and lethal force up to and including the use of training munitions simulations. The Seven Levels of Simulation will be explored as will be the use of a full range of defensive tactics training tools including training weapons, striking shields, training dummies, and impact training protective equipment. The emphasis of this program will be the incorporation of firearms into defensive tactics training to overcome the tactical fixation that often accompanies duty performance that was trained in module format with not integration of the force decision making. This program will cover the full range of instruction including lecture, demonstration, physical technique training, simulation training, and testing procedures.

Topics covered:

- Firearm training safety procedures that insure safety
- Integration of all use-of-force options and weapons
- How to prepare the training area for integrated use-of-force training
- The Simunition Training Safety Model will be modeled for this program
- How to create decision making Scenario Based Instruction (SBI)
- Use of 21st Tactical AirSoft approved training weapons
- Use of Simunition® FX Marking Cartridges
- Use of RedMan® Protective Equipment

Duration: 3 Days

Tuition: $595.00

Ammunition: None

Equipment Required: Clothing and footwear for defensive tactics instruction, with whistle and lanyard. Duty belt with holster, training weapons, inert aerosols, body armor, impact weapon, protective equipment, groin protection and mouthpiece.
